

CYBER COVERAGE

VACORP members are provided coverage for online privacy matters that gives you peace of mind when logging on.

In the rapidly-evolving landscape of the technology world, new threats are always around the corner. VACORP's cyber coverage covers all the latest threats and liability concerns. We want members to feel safe when accessing the Internet, which is vital for work life as well as staying connected with friends and family across the globe.

Our Solution

Our coverage includes:

Network and Information Security Liability & Communication and Media Liability

- For unauthorized access to personal identifying information & the transmission of a computer virus
- Copyright & trademark infringement, plagiarism, libel and slander online

Regulatory Defense Expenses

- Defense expenses for any claim by a state or federal agency resulting from Network & Information Security Liability or Communications & Media Liability

Crisis Management Event Expenses & Security Breach Notification Expenses

- Coverage of the expenses of a public relations services as a result of a network breach or communication fault, expenses to determine to scope of the breach, & the cost of notification of all affected parties as required by law
- Both are subject to $75,000 sublimit

Benefits to You

- No deductibles for these claims
- A feeling of safety and protection while maintaining an active online presence
- $500,000 limit per occurrence per member

For more information about this program, please contact:
info@riskprograms.com or by phone at (844) 986-2705

